

Shreveport-Bossier's Best Screenplay Competition

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Clint McCommon
Fairfield Studios
318-220-0400

Fairfield Studios has launched the Shreveport-Bossier Best Screenplay Competition taking place from July 5th until the winner is announced during the Red River Revel on October 9th at 7:30pm Main Stage. The Shreveport-Bossier Best Screenplay Competition is an effort to showcase the contributions of the movie and entertainment industry in Shreveport-Bossier with a competition to find the best screenplay to be made into a short film produced by Fairfield Studios and directed by Emmy Award Winner Pruitt Taylor Vince. The celebrity judging panel will consist of Pruitt Taylor Vince, Gregory Kallenberg, and Jeffrey Goodman.

Contestants will have until August 31st to submit their screenplay to the SBSShortFilms.net Website. Winner will be picked by a combination of viewer votes and a celebrity judging panel. The main stipulations of the contest are the all contestants must live within the SB area and the screenplay must represent Shreveport-Bossier in a positive manner.

Interested parties should come to the "Meet-Up" being held at Robinson Film Center screening room on Tuesday, July 13th at 6:00 pm, visit sbshortfilms.net or contact Fairfield Studios 318-220-0400.

###

Many thanks to our partners: Adverpod, Kalmbach Smith Meadows, Shreveport-Bossier Films, Shreveport-Bossier Convention & Tourism Bureau, Bossier Arts Council, local television stations, GAP Broadcasting, Robinson Film Center, and infamous Web Series.